Living and Sharing the Transforming Love of Christ

Pastor's Corner

"Living and sharing the transforming love of Christ!"

The condensed version of our congregation's mission statement, which most of us are very familiar with by now, is: "Living and sharing the transforming love of Christ." While the actual transformation that takes place in someone's life is God's accomplishment, He calls upon us to be instruments of His life-transforming grace. We help others see what God is like when we live out Christ's love and share the message of the Gospel with others.

Jesus gives us the following illustration: "You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." (Matthew 5:14-16)

All of us need the light of Christ's love shining into our lives. But sometimes people face circumstances when it feels like they are all alone or that there isn't anyone else who can relate to their situation. They might even be tempted to think that no one cares. Of course, that's never true. Our Lord, Jesus, always cares! He loves each of us and promises to be with us!

One of the ways that Jesus makes His love known in the world today is through us, His Church. Here at Campus there are many opportunities to share Christ's love through our small groups and the many programs and initiatives of our ministry teams. I encourage you to support and participate in the ministries of our congregation. And, even more importantly, I encourage you to pray for, and recognize those opportunities that God puts before you personally to serve someone else with Jesus' love.

If you are thinking of someone or hoping the best for someone, TELL THEM. Call, email, text or visit that person and let them know! Let Christ shine through you and bless your friend. It's amazing how the Lord works through even the simplest acts of love.

Serving Jesus with you,

Pastor Kent Pierce

Farewell to our 2022-2023 Student Workers

Morgan Jennings

Hello, Campus Lutheran Family! It has been an awesome school year, but I am glad to be entering the summer months! As most of you may know, I graduated in May from Mizzou with a Bachelor's degree in Music Education. I am excited to begin teaching K-12 music in the fall! I am even more excited that my job allows me to stay in Columbia and therefore allows me to continue seeing all of you. For the past two years, I have served as a student worker for Campus Lutheran. It has been an amazing experience that has shaped my time at Mizzou. It helped me build lasting relationships within the congregation and with our college students. I gained a new perspective into church work and the responsibilities that come with that job. God truly guided me throughout my time as a student worker. He surrounded me with people that used their gifts to fulfill my shortcomings. He stirred up my passion for Him when I became overwhelmed. God has blessed my time here at Campus Lutheran and I know He will continue to bless the student workers in the future!

Leah Jennings

Hello! My year working as a Student Worker for Campus Lutheran Church has flown by! I loved this role and learned so much in the past year. I will be studying abroad next spring so I sadly will not be returning as a Student Worker. Being a Student Worker has given me the opportunity to learn more about this amazing church and the congregation inside of it. It has provided me a way to become even more involved in the events and community within Campus Lutheran Church. God has truly blessed our group, and I know he will continue to guide them as he did with Morgan and I. I will miss it but am excited to see what our next leaders will do!

QUARTERLIFE - PASTOR JAMES LANNING

SHARED MINISTRY - Pastor James Lanning

One of the biggest problems facing the LCMS, as well as many other traditional denominations, is the problem of the shrinking Church. It is no secret that the prominence of Christianity in the United States, (and even more so in Europe), has diminished greatly, resulting in the entire western world being a place of spiritual darkness. There once was a time, when Christianity was still the spiritual foundation on which our country stood; many of you probably still remember these days, when there were churches on every street corner, and everything closed down on Sunday so people could go to church. Now however, our cities and towns are filled with churches that are either half-full or barely hanging on, and many church buildings that were once prominent places of worship, have closed their doors and have been abandoned to the ravages of time and the elements as they crumble to pieces and fall to the ground.

To add to this problem, there is a shortage of pastors, that will only continue to get worse as the older pastors retire. Hundreds of congregations are in need of a pastor, and hundreds more will be soon, and unfortunately, there are not enough new pastors coming from our seminaries each year to fill the growing need. Many pastors have taken the role of serving dual-perishes and even tri-perishes, in order to serve rural congregations that just can't support their own pastor. It certainly is a formidable challenge for our synod, especially when some congregations that share a pastor are 50-100 miles apart. The most recent solution to this problem is what we here in Columbia and Centralia are doing together, what is being called shared ministry.

Shared ministry is the pairing of two congregation with the end goal that they will assist each other in the work that God is doing. In shared ministry, it may be true that one congregation is in a more strained or dire situation than the other, but it is also true that both congregations have something to offer one another, therefore a symbiotic relationship between the two congregations is what is in view. Shared ministry allows churches to come together, to put aside any notion of competition, or sense of exclusive congregational identity, and start to see themselves as one Church. We at Campus Lutheran and Good Shepherd have been working to bring our two congregations into this kind of relationship; here is how we have been working to build our shared ministry:

- Pulpit Exchange – Pastor Pierce and I swapped congregations during Lent and Advent, collaborating on sermon series, and allowing our two congregations to get to know both pastors a little better.
- Confirmation – This past year, Good Shepherd only had one confirmation student, so he joined Campus' confirmation class and Pastor Pierce and I tagged teamed the class.
- Turbo Team – Also known as our joint ministry team, this team consists of several people from both congregation who meet to discuss ministry ideas and opportunities that we can work together to serve our communities.
- Quarterlife – Quarterlife is a group of young adults who are either in grad school or done with college; though they are done with college ministry gatherings, they are still looking for Christian fellowship with people their own age. This group consists of young adults from both Campus Lutheran and Good Shepherd.
- Prayer Group – We have started an online joint-prayer group that meets at 9pm on Wednesday evenings; we go through a brief compline service and then open up the room for individual prayer

It is my hope that in the years to come as Campus Lutheran and Good Shepherd work in shared ministry together, we will not see ourselves merely as two separate congregations, but as two distinct parts of one Church working together.

INTERNATIONAL MINISTRY - BETH GREIMANN

I count it all joy to have been asked to serve Campus Lutheran as the International Student Ministry Director by our congregation. This process started more than a year ago when Art Simmons and Mike Alexander spoke to me about my taking this position on. That transition started last spring and was finalized during the fall. I have been working with the Department of Asian Affairs as an Instructor of English since 2015 and this has allowed me to develop many relationships with students, scholars and their families. We have been active this school year in providing outreach to many internationals through teaching them about American culture and sharing the love of Christ. We sponsored a Pumpkin Carving Event which involved 75 children and 55 adults, a Gingerbread house building event that brought 15 families together to see this tradition and hear the story of the Savior's birth. We had 14 international families join in our Bunco night and 35 International children joined our Easter Egg Hunt. We have started to have international families join Grace Road and one of our Chinese Scholars has joined our Quarter Life Group and has asked about being Baptized on her birthday in August. During all of these events new families are shown our Care and Share area which has been well received and well shopped! We are looking forward to seeing several families join our VBS this year. A shout out to Barry Stevens for applying for 2 Thrivent Grants that provided for the Pumpkin Carving and the Gingerbread house building.

We have 2 families that returned to their home countries and are still in contact with us and one family is asking to be baptized.

Gail Sponaugle has taken on the American English For You class for the school year and has seen many new faces. We are looking for someone to be available to substitute occasionally during the school year. Please talk to Gail if you are interested.

ISM, International Student Ministry is an RSO of the LCMS. ISM had their National Equipping Conference at Campus Lutheran May 23-25. Thank you to the LWML of Centralia, Trinity and Campus and Campus Quarterlife for helping provide meals for the event.

What My Faith Means to Me

My Statement of Faith

By: Rylan Huggins

³ "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." (Matthew 5: 3-4)

My faith is very important to me, as it is like a parent leading me through life who will always be there for me and guides me to know what to do and not to do. I know that I have done things that are wrong, but I am glad that I have someone who will always forgive me no matter how big the sin is. People say that you should think for yourself, but we know a lot less than God. We should always listen to Him even though we think we are correct. God always takes care of me and comforts me just like when he freed Moses and the people of Israel from Egypt and took care of them in the wilderness. God gave us the Bible so whomever wants to learn about Him can. With God's help, we can fend off evil that has come to tempt us and others by using the armor God gave us to win against the evil we will encounter in our lives. My faith isn't just something for me to take for granted, I have to continue to grow my faith, so I can live with God in this life, and the next.

I plan to continue nurturing my faith by staying involved with worship and other activities at church. Also, I am working to know God's word better by reading the Bible and taking religion classes at school. I will continue to help others and spread God's word by helping out at a local food pantry, as well as servant events with my Trail Life troop (a Christian organization that teaches outdoor skills and camping). I know that my journey is just beginning, but as long as I have God and a Bible with me, I will be all right.

My Statement of Faith

By: Levi Vaughn

"For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you." Jeremiah 29:11-12

My scripture verse states that God already has a plan to give us a future and hope. Through my years of confirmation, I have learned that whatever happens to me I can trust in God. He knows that I am able to get through it and that it will make me a better person. I want to be confirmed so I can have a solid foundation for the rest of my life. I also want to have a greater part in God's plan. His plan started for me when I was baptized. Baptism made me a part of God's family. Being part of a family that I can trust and during tough times in my life makes me more confident about the future in Christ.

Three years ago, I started confirmation. Me and other kids my age took a deeper look into what the Bible and Luther's Small Catechism had to tell us. I have learned the importance of God in my life. He sent Jesus, His only son to die so we could be forgiven. He made plans for me thousands of years before I was born. Even though I continue to sin, I can know that God still loves me and will forgive me of all my sins. God will always be there for me even in hard times. God will always have a plan for me.

Once I am confirmed, I am going to continue going to church and growing in my faith. I will still go to Youth Group where we learn to love and serve our neighbors through little things. Confirmation was one of the first steps in God's plan for me. I am glad to have grown up with a Christian family and a great church family that I could rely on and that helped me on my way into this kind of life. I am blessed to know that whatever happens I can know that God will see me through it. I will follow God's plan for me until I finally meet him in Heaven.

My Statement of Faith

By: Abraham Zachary

Psalms 119:105: Your word is a lamp to my feet and light for my path.

The verse that I chose is Psalm 119:105: Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path. I chose this verse because I believe the word serves as a guide leading us on our way and teaching us the way of patience without the need for harm. My faith allows me to live with the protection of God as someone who is willing to hold peace and balance. It shows me that the past connects to the future and gives me hope.

This verse reminds me that God's Word is a powerful guide in my life. It lights my path and shows me the way to go. When I trust in God's Word, I feel protected and safe, even during challenges and problems that come my way. To me, faith is about trusting in God's plan for my life, even when I don't understand it. It's about finding comfort and strength knowing that God is always with me leading me forward. This helps me to live a life of kindness, compassion, and service.

I believe that through faith, we have forgiveness and redemption. We can let go of our past mistakes and move forward with hope and joy. And as I go through life, I can hold on to my faith and God's Word and know that it will always be a lamp to my feet and a light on my path and guide me through my life.

MAY 2023

Greetings in Christ Jesus!

Well, the big news is in... we are Wisconsin bound for vicarage!!! Immanuel Lutheran Church in Wisconsin Rapids will be our vicarage congregation. We are very excited about our placement. During the interview process Dr. Nielsen (the director of vicarage placement) asked me what my number one request for vicarage would be. Now, I feel very well prepared by the Seminary for all sorts of different ministry opportunities, so I was comfortable going to any type or kind of church for vicarage. So, I told Dr. Nielsen that I wanted to go somewhere that measures snow in feet and not inches—and boy did Dr. Nielsen deliver!

Immanuel is part of the Wisconsin North district of the LCMS. This is a good thing, because I have been told that I would fit in very well in the Wisconsin North district by a variety of different people. I am excited to get up to that part of the country and see just exactly what they mean. Hopefully I will fit in well! I know Dreama will flower wherever she is planted, and Eleanor will do the same. She's already got some new snow-boots to break in this coming winter!

I am really looking forward to going on vicarage. I am sure it will be a formative experience where the Spirit will help shape me into the pastor that I need to become to under-shepherd in Christ's Church. I am also looking forward to all the brats, beer, and cheese that comes along with the territory!

If you are looking for prayer requests, I ask that you pray for a smooth transition as we make plans and preparations before our big move. Pray also that God would use me as His instrument to proclaim the good news of what Christ Jesus has done and is now doing for us. Pray that Dreama and Eleanor will withstand the cold! Pray for all of my brothers who are going out all across the country on their various vicarage assignments. And finally, pray that our Lord Jesus would come back soon, ushering in the demise of death itself in the New Heavens and New Earth.

From your loving almost-Wisconsinites,
Joseph, Dreama, and Eleanor Eggerman

Campus Lutheran Church,

Thank you again for your continued support during this season of life through the adopt-a-student program! My wife and I are extremely grateful to have support from the body of Christ on Earth that allows us to pursue a life of full-time ministry.

The Lenten season is over but that does not mean that life is slowing down at Divine Redeemer Lutheran Church and School. Graduations, confirmations, prepping for VBS, end of year chapels, and awards to name a few items... it's a big list but I am thrilled to be a part of it. This year has flown by for both my wife and I and we will be sad to say goodbye to all of our new friends here, but we are also excited about getting back to Saint Louis to wrap up our time at Concordia Seminary and to see where God will send us next.

However, even with the busy end of school year schedule, the daily life at Divine Redeemer has not slowed down. I have continued to enjoy teaching Bible studies for the early childhood development kids, both 7th and 8th graders, as well as older adult members of our congregation. I have found that teaching is the aspect of the ministry that I enjoy the most whether in the pulpit on Sunday morning, in front of a classroom during confirmation classes, around the table at a Bible study, or wherever else God places me to proclaim the truth of his salvation. I feel blessed every time I have the attention of those eager to receive the Word of God.

I have said this before, but a big part of my job as a vicar in a church with an associated school has been children's ministry. This includes the teaching I have mentioned above, but also extends to the VBS planning we are now undertaking for the summer of this year. VBS is coming up quick and there is a lot to do! We have put a lot into this year's program and I am excited to see what God does with it. I have never run a VBS before so this will be an adventure. I have a lot of help from those in the congregation who have experienced this before, so I lean on them greatly!

As this will be my last letter during my time here on vicarage, I believe it is appropriate to reflect on the experience as a whole. The biggest lesson that I have learned is that the role of a pastor does not change much depending on the role he is filling. I have been on many home visits with the elderly and sick, I have preached many sermons, I have sat in many a staff meeting, and I have lost count of the Bible studies. Through all of it, though it may be a little different depending on the context, I have done nothing but be Christ's representative to whoever needs it in that moment and have never stopped proclaiming the truth of his grace in all circumstances.

Thank you again for your kind and generous contributions. Hannah and I are very grateful and feel incredibly blessed to have the support we do from everyone who believes in God's mission on Earth. Christ's eternal peace be with you and your families!

Graham Jenkins

ENDOWMENT FUND

CAMPUS LUTHERAN CHURCH ENDOWMENT FUND – DID YOU KNOW?

An endowment is a donation of money or property to a nonprofit organization, which then uses the resulting investment income to support the organization and its activities. Since the goal of the Campus Lutheran Church Endowment Fund is long-term support, only earnings from the investment are made available to the church as described in the by-laws and policies developed by CLC.

HOW DO GIFTS COME INTO THE CAMPUS LUTHERAN CHURCH ENDOWMENT FUND?

Gifts to the Fund come from members of Campus Lutheran Church (CLC), their families, and friends of Campus Lutheran Church. When a person has a lifetime plan for giving, most often gifts return to God regularly ...weekly, monthly... from one's earnings to support the missions of Campus Lutheran Church. These gifts support the annual spending plan as reflected in the budget. But stewardship is a broad activity and at times there are special gifts and bequests that are intended for use in mission and ministry beyond those budgeted. These special gifts can be thought out and established as a part of one's lifetime plan for giving and can be made as a special gift to the Endowment Fund. Then the earnings from the Endowment gift can be used for ministries outside (beyond) those in the annual budget. Members and friends can make gifts on special occasions such as a birthday, baptism anniversary, or wedding anniversary. Some might gift to honor another person. End-of-life (estate) gifting can be a significant part of one's giving plan and can be a large contributing source to an endowment. That is how gifts come into the Endowment, and then the gift remains in perpetuity, and the earnings support activities beyond the annual budget.

GIVING TO THE ENDOWMENT FUND SEEMS COMPLEX TO ME. HOW DO I GET HELP?

First, one can give the same way you give regularly to Campus Lutheran Church (CLC). Simply designate the use as Campus Lutheran Church Endowment Fund or Endowment Fund. If you need further help, contact a member of the Endowment Board, whose names and contact information follow. Sometimes your attorney, tax accountant and so forth might need to get involved. Our congregation and Fund Board has expertise available and can answer your questions, get you started on utilizing the CLC Endowment Fund, your fund.

Contact an Endowment Board Member: Ev Adam, Jr. - 573-239-7921; Luke Lilienkamp - 573- 338-4107; Barron Roth - 573-673-9685; Rachel Skrabal - 573-289-2711; Rob Vaughn - 573-819-7032.

SOCIAL MINISTRY TEAM - SARAH PELLIS

Our Lutheran Blind Ministry continues to meet once a month. We refer to this group as Circle of Friends. We have a consistent number of people who join us each month from the community. Recently, we delivered brunch bag meals that we packed up. This activity took place in April for the Shine Servant Event. We have plans to deliver another meal later this summer and are planning to have a Barbeque in late summer or early fall.

“Growing Together in Christ” Celebration Sunday

Thank You

Members of Campus Lutheran,

My husband and I (Chas and Holly Carter) have been on the campus prayer intentions list for the last 11 years during our careers as pilots in the United States Navy. We just completed a combined 21 years of service and are moving onto the next phase of life, and I wanted to offer my sincere thanks for all of your prayers. I could write pages about the ways I saw God guiding and protecting us throughout our careers, from physical protection in a very serious helicopter emergency to miraculously perfect childcare situations emerging at the last minute every time we needed it. This is an especially difficult time for our military, so we would ask that you continue to pray for all of our service members. In particular, that our leaders have courage to do the right things in a challenging environment, and that Christians in the military have their faith and convictions respected during their service. Thank you again, and may God Bless you!

A note from a college student's family:

To the Pastor and Congregation,

My family just wanted to express our gratitude for your spiritual support of Kaizley while she attended Stephens College.

She began college during the “pandemic times” and the world was so uncertain. For her to watch the services online and then later walk down the street to attend, provided her with the comfort and reassurance she needed to get her through each week.

Kaizley graduated yesterday, May 6th, and will be returning home to begin her life, but I am sure she will always carry your presence with her.

God's blessings,
The Williams family
