Living and Sharing the Transforming Love of Christ

PASTOR'S CORNER

Partners in the Gospel

I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, ⁴ always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, ⁵ because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. ⁶ And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:3-6

The Apostle Paul gives thanks for the Christians in Philippi because they are his partners in God's work. Whether together or apart, Paul and the members of the Philippian congregation were joined in the common mission of advancing the Gospel message of forgiveness and eternal life in Jesus Christ.

In January, Campus Lutheran and Good Shepherd Lutheran in Centralia began exploring what "shared ministry" might look like for our congregations. Soon after, Campus and Good Shepherd voters agreed to move forward and began the process of developing a memorandum of understanding. Good Shepherd also moved forward with requesting to call a seminary candidate. On July 31, 2022, Rev. James Lanning was installed as Good Shepherd's pastor, while also serving as a pastoral assistant at Campus Lutheran.

While this new partnership is still in its infancy, both congregations have already shared some events and activities. The youth groups have had some joint outings and travelled together to the Youth Gathering in Houston this summer. A post-college young adult group, Quarterlife, has been formed, and invitations have been exchanged between the congregations for a number of special events.

Recently, a leadership team was formed that will work to identify the ministries, resources, training, finances, volunteers and a timeline for implementing congregation-based ministry which will have a direct impact on making disciples. The core of this new team met for the first time at the Churches Planting Churches Conference held in St. Louis on August 18-20. This initial meeting was very productive, and plans are underway for a slightly expanded team, officially recognized as the "Shared Ministry Workgroup," to meet in October.

Pray for the leaders and members from both congregations, that as we come together with much excitement and many great ideas, we will prioritize and focus our shared ministry opportunities in meaningful, missional, attainable ways.

JAMES LANNING—PASTORAL ASSISTANT

Meet the Lannings

James Lanning – I was born in Austin Texas on June 14, 1990 and am the oldest of 3 brothers. I will be a first-generation pastor within my family, though I join my younger brother in the ministry field, as he is a campus missionary with Cru. I enjoy running long distances, like running half and full marathons, as well as triathlons and mud runs. I also enjoy playing music and have played the trombone since I was in middle school; Hannah and I have played in a local orchestra since my first year at the seminary and are hoping to find one in or near Centralia to be a part of.

I went to school at Texas Tech University and earned a degree in Mid-level Education. During my time at Texas Tech my brother and I joined Campus Crusade (Cru). After my graduation from Texas Tech, I went on a summer mission with Cru to Branson, Missouri, where I gained experience in evangelism and in leading a men's group. A few months after I got back from the mission, circumstances led me to look into seminary. In early February I started the application process; by May I had been accepted; in June, without ever setting foot on the campus of Concordia Seminary, I came to St. Louis. After 4 short years at Concordia, I am now ready to begin my ministry here with y'all.

Hannah Lanning – Hannah was born on November 18, 1994 and is the 4th child of 5 siblings. She is one of the most talented musicians I know, and the number of instruments she plays is beyond impressive. Hannah plays the violin, the concert harp, the piano, and the viola all at professional level, and can play double bass and cello at a competent level. Hannah loves music and theatre and enjoys certain sports like volleyball; she loves to travel and see new places, and we both love to hike and ski.

Hannah and I met in a young adult Bible Study, where we quickly fell in love; I proposed in September of 2019, after almost a year of dating, and we got married on Dec. 21, 2019. God has truly blessed me with my wife Hannah, and I am very grateful. She is a very warm and loving person, and a very good wife and mother. I know she will be a key part of my ministry, as she is my greatest helper and my dearest friend.

Katherine Lanning – Our little daughter was born on December 19, 2020 in Appleton Wisconsin. She is almost a year and a half and already has a distinct little personality. Her favorite activities include babbling, walking, climbing stairs, eating food, and throwing food on the ground. She loves being outside more than just about anything else and enjoys collecting sticks. Katy is the first grandbaby on both sides of the family, and brings joy and life to our family, even if she can be a little patoot half the time.

Student Ministry

Hello everyone!

I would like to express my excitement and gratitude to be serving as a Student Worker again this year at Campus Lutheran. I truly feel like Campus Lutheran Church is my second home and I love getting to be a part of this church family. We had a great summer as a Lutheran Student Fellowship! We welcomed incoming freshman, had Bible studies, and prepared for this school year. I am looking forward to another great year at the Gathering and Campus Lutheran Church!

Meet Our New Student Worker—Leah Jennings

Hello everyone! I am Leah Jennings and I am a sophomore studying Strategic Communications. I started serving The Gathering last semester as the communications chair on the Lutheran Student Fellowship Board. I am very excited to continue this year as the communications chair, along with being on the Peer Ministry Team and working alongside my sister as a Student Worker. I’m eager to grow our campus ministry and build relationships through The Gathering on Wednesday nights, Women’s Bible Study, and any other small groups and events we will host. I’m honored to be able to serve Campus Lutheran and our campus ministry in any way I can this year!

STUDENT MINISTRY TEAM - THOMAS SENTER

This summer, the LSF has been meeting each Wednesday for the Summer Gathering. Throughout June, our group read Greg Finke's Joining Jesus: Show Me How. We learned how to disciple to the people in our everyday lives and the people we may meet in the upcoming school year. After finishing our book study, we decided to move on to a more easy-going Bible study, so we've been going through The Mayberry Bible Study by Stephen Skelton. This is a study in which we watch an episode of The Andy Griffith Show and then discuss how the lesson taught in that episode is reinforced by the Bible. It has been fun to learn from Andy, Barney, Opie, and all the other characters in Mayberry!

Outside of our Bible studies, the LSF also took part in Mizzou's Summer Welcome. This was an opportunity for us to meet incoming freshman and tell them about our group. We look forward to seeing some of these students again in the fall!

MISSIONARY NEWS

Beyond Us Brazil

Our Mission & Vision

Our hearts are with young people who have experienced a rough start in life. We want to help provide ways to teach life skills, biblical truths, and be in relationship with children and teens who have been abused, trafficked, and lived on the streets. We are teaming up with Action International Ministries (ACTION) and the Davis Lar Children's Home to serve outside Fortaleza, Brazil.

Chris + Ashley answering the call to serve!

From North Idaho to Northeast Brazil, we are putting our God-given talents to use for His glory! We have both spent time in other countries in short-term capacities, as team members and leaders. We each have worked with children and youth over the past 10 years through summer camps, church youth group, and coaching sports. We know that God has prepared us and will continue to be our guide as we step into this work He has given to us. We intend to take our experiences and help those who are vulnerable to see the love of Jesus.

What's in the name?

Okay, we promised to tell you how the name "Beyond Us" came to be. I don't think we fully realized until this past week everything that went into it. The journalism and business background in me knew we wanted to be able to succinctly explain, share, and brand our mission. Not branding in a corporate way, but in order to create something that was consistent and recognizable to communicate our vision (and of course make fun things like t-shirts down the road).

We brainstormed a bunch last fall when getting ready to launch our website and first main newsletter. Once we had some names that described missional living and serving, we checked if the site name was available and Instagram and Facebook availability. We kept coming back to "Beyond Us". We liked it. It rolled off the tongue when paired with Brazil and easy to use. Then we sent it to our designer friend Jen who donated her time and talent to create the actual logo.

This is where it gets cool. We knew we had used it and heard it in some capacity over the years but couldn't pinpoint where. Come to find out it was a Missions Team slogan we used at our local church when we served with outreach teams and dear friend Tami. However, the name was since retired and not found online when we had been doing market research. This experience of leading trips with our local church was so integral in getting us where we are that it seemed fitting it originated there.

Warning: Share time and journals (this is a rarity for me so take advantage). This past week I started rereading "What Happens When Young Women Say Yes to God" by Lysa and Hope Terkeurst and came back across a chapter I worked through back in early 2019. At that time I had journaled through the prompts that took me through how to know if something I am hearing is from God. I journaled specifically about how God had been talking to me about serving as a missionary in Brazil...which is something few knew about at the time as we were wrestling through a lot and I wanted to make sure it was a God thing. There was one key question in that prompt— "Is it beyond you?" Meaning is it something we can't do on our own or would even come up with on our own? It can only happen because God — I can't plan it or strategize or make it be. I wrote in bold in my journal "YES BEYOND ME!". Because I knew it was crazy and impossible and so beyond what my comfort level was. (For those wondering- it also lined up with all 4 other questions). This was reaffirming that God is working in the details and the heart of this adventure.

So to summarize-why the name?

- we are serving those beyond me, beyond you - beyond us, specifically in Brazil
- we need you to come along side this to make it work- this is beyond just Ashley + Chris
- we are human, imperfect and incapable of doing it alone- beyond our ability, and is God driven
- So jump in, come along with us, and go beyond what we could do as individual humans.

COMMUNICATIONS - SCOTT DART

Campus Lutheran is pleased to announce that after the supply chain shortages of the pandemic, we finally got all the parts we needed in order to broadcast the worship service in Joy (room 118; the nursery) so that parents or guardians can continue to follow the service if the nursery is needed during the service.

Any service that is live streamed will also be shown in Joy. When there is no live stream, the screen will show the announcements, just like the screens in the Connect Room and by the elevator.

We'd like to particularly thank Luke Lilienkamp and Thomas Senter for installing the wiring between the streaming center and Joy.

Fall Festival Bazaar

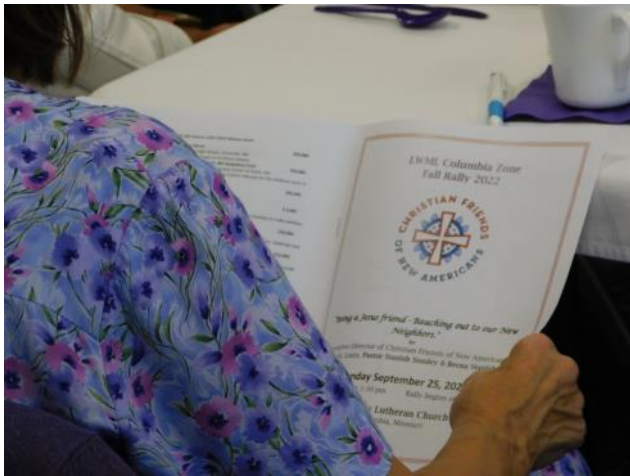

Do you like to eat spaghetti? Do you like to cook or bake? Are you a crafter? And perhaps most importantly, can you wash dishes?!

Please join us on Saturday, October 15th, for the Second Annual Fall Festival and Bazaar with a Spaghetti Dinner!

This is a fun way to spend time in fellowship, outreach, and fundraising for our church! We will have a bazaar with lovely handmade items and baked goods available, and a delicious spaghetti dinner that evening. These photos show a sampling of the items available that day, and more photos are posted under the link on our church website www.campuslutheran.org/fall-festival-bazaar.
