A 40-DAY LIFE-CHANGING JOURNEY TO FREEDOM

ZACH ZEHNDER

WEEKLY SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION GUIDE FOR TEENS

teen

INTRODUCTION

We are about to embark on a 40-Day Life-Changing Journey to Freedom called Forgiving Challenge. Before we begin our journey, take some time to go over the Group Promise together by reading it aloud. Make sure everyone understands the commitment.

GROUP PROMISE

I commit to these basic Forgiving Challenge Group Promises. This is my “ALL IN” pledge to live out Jesus’ words, both in my own life and in helping my Group do so.

- ➡ I will be on time and show up with my whole heart.
- ➡ Especially due to the nature of the content in Forgiving Challenge, I understand that this Group is 100% confidential. Whatever is shared in the Group stays in the Group.
- ➡ I will respect other Group members by participating openly and speaking honestly, without dominating the discussions.
- ➡ I will not try to fix people, preach a sermon, or give unsolicited advice.
- ➡ When I share in the Group I will share primarily about myself and not about others.
- ➡ I will trust God to work in all of us as we explore the forgiveness of Jesus together!

Icebreaker: Nearly everyone has a scar somewhere on their body. Tell the story behind one of your scars, and why it may or may not be meaningful to you.

WATCH FORGIVING CHALLENGE SMALL GROUP VIDEO WEEK 1 - INTRODUCTION

DISCUSSION

- 1 Do you have a harder time receiving forgiveness for yourself or giving forgiveness to others?
- 2 If Jesus has set you free, then why does Christianity feel like a cage?

Zach says in the Introduction of Forgiving Challenge: “Jesus is known for grace. Christians are known for judgment. Grace and judgment, by definition, are polar opposites of one another. Grace is getting a free gift you don’t deserve. Judgment is getting exactly what you deserve.” Do you agree or disagree that Christians are known for judgment? How can we change that without compromising who we are?

DISCUSSION (CONT.)

Read John 20:19-29 Jesus Appears to His Disciples and answer the following questions:

- 1 Why do you think God would allow the scars on Jesus’s body to remain after his resurrection? What does God want to tell us through the scars of Jesus?
- 2 Even though the disciples were uniquely chosen by God and given a front-row seat to 3.5 years of His preaching, teaching, and miraculous healings, they cowered in fear and doubted the power of His resurrection. Can you relate to the disciples? Despite all that God has done for you, are there times that you feel guilt and shame over your fear?
- 3 After receiving a second chance from Jesus through His grace, Thomas would go from a doubting disciple to a devoted disciple. Has the grace of Jesus changed you? How?

In the introduction of Forgiving Challenge, Pastor Zach says, “You cannot be forgiving of others until you have received forgiveness for yourself. We forgive others by learning to receive God’s forgiveness for ourselves.”

Self-Reflection: When do you feel God’s forgiveness the most?

In Forgiving Challenge, Pastor Zach will help you dive deep into the story of Jesus forgiving Peter, the leader of the disciples. What are some of the first words that come to mind about Peter?

Forgiving Challenge will explore the 5 Phases Leading to Freedom using the acronym SCARS:

Look up each of these words to find their definitions to help you have greater understanding of where we are headed on the journey.

CHALLENGE OF THE WEEK

Invite someone on this 40-Day journey with you.

The challenge we face is not meant to be done alone. Our hope is that you will do this challenge with at least one other person, called your accountability partner. If you are joining in this challenge with your small group or your church, it's still important that you have one person who can help to hold you accountable for the duration of this challenge. Identify specifics with this person, such as how often you will check in with one another and what questions you will ask of one another at those check-ins.

My accountability partner in this journey is: _____

CLOSING THOUGHT + PRAYER

The first step to having freedom is knowing that God has truly forgiven you.

#FORGIVINGCHALLENGE

Read Isaiah 53:4-5: Surely he took up our pain and bore our suffering, yet we considered him punished by God, stricken by him, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds, we are healed.

Spend time praying for your group as you all embark on the 40-Day Challenge together. Ask God for encouragement, strength, honesty, perseverance, and appropriate vulnerability to help you genuinely receive God's forgiveness and the freedom that He offers to you.

For a deeper, daily experience to go alongside of the weekly small group experience, purchase Forgiving Challenge: A 40-Day Life-Changing Journey Leading to Freedom at www.forgivingchallenge.com and read the Introduction, as well as Days 1-5.*

INTRODUCTION

Ice breaker: Share an invention or a particular ingenuity of humankind that is the most fascinating to you.

Take some time to discuss the previous week's readings and challenges. Be honest about whether you did all, some, or none of the challenges. Challenges are not homework; they are opportunities. Completing them is not mandatory but optional. You can still attend small group even if you didn't do any, but we challenge you to be honest about why you didn't complete any.

DISCUSSION

- ➔ Celebrate a "win" that you had in Forgiving Challenge over the past week.
- ➔ Share a struggle.
- ➔ What did God reveal to you during the readings and/or Challenges this past week?

WATCH FORGIVING CHALLENGE SMALL GROUP VIDEO WEEK 2 - SIN

- 1 How easily are you offended?
- 2 What about other teens?
- 3 Do you think people are too sensitive or too harsh?

Sin is defined as missing the mark. Therefore, any slight missing of the mark would be considered a sin. Do you feel like some sin is worse than others? If so, give some examples. Do you think that it's right?

In the United States, most Americans still claim faith in Jesus. Yet, Lifeway Research tells us that only 22% of men and 33% of women in America depend on Jesus to overcome sin. On top of that, 1/3 of people don't even confess to being a sinner.

Pastor Zach says, "You will never be free if you cannot admit you are a sinner."

_____ Agree _____ Disagree Why?

Read Isaiah 59:2 out loud together. "But your iniquities have separated you from your God; your sins have hidden his face from you so that he will not hear."

Based on this passage, what is the consequence of sin?

DISCUSSION (CONT.)

Forgiving Challenge will primarily focus on the story of how Jesus forgives Peter. Peter is the only other fully developed character (this means that person has changed over time, and that change is recorded) in the four Gospels outside of Jesus. By exploring how Jesus will forgive Peter, we will begin to understand better how Jesus forgives each one of us. In our small group study for today, we will examine parts of Peter's story and the events leading up to Peter's sin that he is most known for.

Read Luke 5:1-11. Jesus Chooses Peter to be His Disciple.

- 1 Had Peter done anything up to this point to earn a front-row-seat to doing ministry with Jesus?
- 2 What was Peter's response to Jesus choosing him to be a disciple?
- 3 What can we learn from Peter and about Peter with this response?

Read Matthew 16:13-20 Jesus Appoints Peter to Lead the Church

Not only did Jesus call Peter to be one of His 12 disciples, but He entrusted the keys to the church to Peter's leadership. What made Jesus choose Peter for such a high honor?

Read Matthew 26:31-35 Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

At the Last Supper, Jesus predicted all of the disciples would deny Him. But Peter stood up and boldly professed that he would be faithful all the way until the end. In your faith journey, have you ever, even with good intentions, professed something that later you couldn't live up to? Explain.

Read John 18:15-18, 25-27 Peter Denies Jesus Three Times

Even though Jesus had not only called Peter as one of the 12, but also entrusted to him the keys to the church, Peter badly failed Jesus. How do you think Peter felt after hearing the rooster crow knowing that he had denied Jesus three times?

Self Reflection: How do you feel, especially knowing how much God has done for you, when you fail to live up to God's will?

Pastor Zach says, "Sin is strong, but Jesus's grace is stronger." #FORGIVINGCHALLENGE

Do you really believe this? If so, are you willing to let the grace of Jesus cover your sin(s)?

teen

CHALLENGE OF THE WEEK

There are two types of sin:

- 1 Sins of Commission
- 2 Sins of Omission

Sins of commission are things we do, say, or think that we ought not. Sins of omission are things we have been called to do, state, or believe that we leave undone. Use the following handout to take the following omission and commission sin tests. These tests are highly confidential. I hope that after taking these sin tests that you would be vulnerable and honest with your accountability partner about the results.

CLOSING THOUGHT + PRAYER

Failure is typically the end of someone's story in this world. But in God's story, any failure is an opportunity to fall into the grace and forgiveness of Jesus.

Read the Romans 3:23-24 out loud together as a group: For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus.

Spend time praying and asking God to reveal the sin in your life from which you want freedom. . Thank God that His grace is big enough to cover all of the sins in the group.

INTRODUCTION

Ice breaker: What is a sport, activity, or hobby that you enjoy? Who would you argue is the G.O.A.T. (Greatest of All Time) in that sport, activity, or hobby? Defend your position.

Take some time to discuss the previous week's readings and challenges. Be honest about whether you did all, some, or none of the challenges. Challenges are not homework; they are opportunities. Completing them is not mandatory, but optional. You can still attend small group even if you didn't do any, but we challenge you to be honest about how you are doing with the challenges.

- ➡ What did God reveal to you during the readings and/or Challenges this past week?

WATCH FORGIVING CHALLENGE SMALL GROUP VIDEO WEEK 3 - CONFESSION

Everyone sins. It's what happens after you sin that determines whether you experience freedom or not. Any pursuit of freedom outside of Jesus will always lead to more bondage. Agree or disagree. Explain. Is it okay to experience guilt for your sin?

Read 2 Corinthians 7:10 "Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death."

Describe the difference between guilt and shame. Pastor Zach says, "The devil wants to take your natural feeling of guilt and turn it into shame. But Jesus wants to remove your guilt by His grace." #FORGIVINGCHALLENGE

Do you spend more time listening to the shame language of the devil or to the grace language of Jesus? On Day 13 of Forgiving Challenge, Pastor Zach mentions that the way we typically try to fight sin on our own is through any of these means:

- 1 Blaming Others
- 2 Trying Harder
- 3 Denying Your Sin
- 4 Minimizing Your Sin

DISCUSSION (CONT.)

Which of these four do you tend to fall towards most often? Where do you see these trends in the world, or culture, today?

Worldly sorrow tries to fight sin on our own. Godly sorrow allows Jesus to fight our sin for us. The apostle John invites us, after our sin, to confess our sins to God.

Read 1 John 1:8-10 "8 If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word is not in us."

While acknowledgment of our sin is an important part of the process, it is never the end goal. The purpose of confession is not to dwell on our brokenness, but rather, to receive God's kindness.

Read Romans 2:4 "Do you show contempt for the riches of his kindness, forbearance, and patience, not realizing that God's kindness is intended to lead you to repentance?"

When you confess your sins, do you tend to focus more on your sin or God's kindness? Explain.

Read these words from King David in Psalm 32:3-5 (NLT). Discuss as a group the before and after effects of David's confession of sin. "When I refused to confess my sin, my body wasted away, and I groaned all day long. Day and night your hand of discipline was heavy on me. My strength evaporated like water in the summer heat. "Finally, I confessed all my sins to you and stopped trying to hide my guilt. I said to myself, 'I will confess my rebellion to the Lord.' And you forgave me! All my guilt is gone."

Read John 21:1-9 and answer the following questions:

- 1 What are the first 4 words of John 21 (Chapter 89)? How does this bring comfort to your story knowing that Jesus keeps appearing?
- 2 Is it significant or insignificant that Peter goes back to fishing? Explain.
- 3 Have you ever stopped pursuing God passionately due to some sin, or some moment, in your life that you have had a hard time getting past? Why?
- 4 Has God ever complicated things in your life in order to bring you back to him? Explain.
- 5 How does Peter approach Jesus?

WEEK 3 | CONFESSION

FROM RED LETTER CHALLENGE

CHALLENGE OF THE WEEK

Commit to memory 1 John 1:8-9 (previous page). In addition, spend time with your accountability partner confessing your sin. If you need help with what to say, or how to confess, use the confession on Day 17 of Forgiving Challenge to guide you.

CLOSING THOUGHT + PRAYER

The admission price to freedom begins with an admission of sin. No matter what you've done Jesus is ready today to hear your confession. More than your perfectly scripted words, Jesus knows your heart.

Read Hebrews 4:16 out loud together as a group: "Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need."

Spend time in prayer confessing your sins to God. Depending on the size, maturity, comfortability, and relationships in the group, this could be out loud or silently as individuals. Spend time thanking God for His forgiveness of all our sins.

*For a deeper, daily experience to go alongside of the weekly small group experience, read days 13-19 of Forgiving Challenge: A 40-Day Journey Leading to Freedom.

INTRODUCTION

Ice breaker: In your opinion, what is the most important meal of the day?

Take some time to discuss the previous week's readings and challenges. Be honest about whether you did all, some, or none of the challenges. Challenges are not homework; they are opportunities. Completing them is not mandatory, but optional. You can still attend small group even if you didn't do any, but we challenge you to be honest about how you are doing with the challenges.

DISCUSSION

- ➔ Celebrate a "win" that you had in Forgiving Challenge over the past week.
- ➔ Share a struggle.
- ➔ What did God reveal to you during the readings and/or Challenges this past week?

WATCH FORGIVING CHALLENGE SMALL GROUP VIDEO WEEK 4 - ABSOLUTION

Do you tend to replay your worst moments over and over and over again? Yes or no.

The two common definitions of the word forgive are:

- 1 To cancel a debt.
- 2 To stop feeling angry or resentful toward someone for an offense, flaw, or mistake.

Which of these is harder for you, and why? What is the significance of the charcoal fire in Chapter 89? Why do you think that Jesus would recreate Peter's worst moment? Describe what you think the emotions and feelings of Peter must have been as he approached Jesus by the charcoal fire on the shore.

Read John 21:15-17 the conversation by the charcoal fire that Jesus had with Peter:

"15 When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' 'Yes, Lord,' he said, 'you know that I love you.' Jesus said, 'Feed my lambs.'

16 Again Jesus said, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He answered, 'Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.' Jesus said, 'Take care of my sheep.'

17 The third time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' He said, 'Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.' Jesus said, 'Feed my sheep.'"

The definition of absolution is the declaration that you have been forgiven. It is the announcement that your sins have been paid in full, that the debt has been cancelled. How does the amount of times that Jesus asked Peter “Do you love me?” declare to Peter that the consequence of his denials have been paid for?

On Day 21 of Forgiving Challenge, Pastor Zach says, “Freedom is a painful process, and part of that process is entering into our pain to ultimately bring healing. So he recreates the charcoal fire, not because He is a cruel God, but because He is a caring God.” Agree or disagree?

Peter was Jesus’s right-hand man. Jesus had chosen him, believed in him, and entrusted so much to him, but in Jesus’s darkest hour, Peter miserably failed Jesus. If God can forgive someone like Peter, do you believe God can forgive someone like you? Why or why not?

CHALLENGE OF THE WEEK

Knowing that God has forgiven you, say these words of forgiveness over yourself every day this week. Fill in the blanks to make it personal.

Jesus forgives me. Jesus paid the price for all sins, including my sin of _____ . Jesus gave me a free gift called grace. I cannot earn it, and I never will deserve it. Because of this gift of grace, I choose to receive this forgiveness for _____ . I choose to let go of _____ that has kept me in bondage so that I can walk forward in freedom. I will not continue to pay a price for _____ , that God does not ask me to pay. I will let His declaration of forgiveness for the entire world include me in it. If God has forgiven me, then I forgive me too.

WEEK 4 | ABSOLUTION

FROM RED LETTER CHALLENGE

FORGIVING CHALLENGE

Teen

CLOSING THOUGHT + PRAYER

Before we thoroughly move forward, God's forgiveness assures us that our past mistakes will not hold us back any longer. God doesn't want us to relive our worst moments but to relieve us from them.

Read Colossians 2:13-14 (JB Phillips Translation) out loud together as a group: "He has forgiven you all your sins: Christ has utterly wiped out the damning evidence of broken laws and commandments which always hung over our heads, and has completely annulled it by nailing it over his own head on the cross."

Spend time in prayer today. Thank God that He is willing to enter into our worst moments with us to relieve us from them.

The small group leader can close the prayer by saying these powerful words of absolution: "You have been forgiven in the name of the Father, through the blood of Jesus, and by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen." #FORGIVINGCHALLENGE

WATCH FORGIVING CHALLENGE SMALL GROUP VIDEO WEEK 5 - RESTORATION

Do you believe that God thinks you are valuable? Why or why not? Last week we looked at the two common definitions of the word forgive:

- 1 To cancel a debt.
- 2 To stop feeling angry or resentful toward someone for an offense, flaw, or mistake.

Do you tend to wrestle more with the idea of God paying for your sins at the cross or the fact that God isn't angry with you, that He loves you, and even enjoys you? What is the difference between absolution and restoration?

Read John 21:15-17 the conversation in Chapter 89 by the charcoal fire once more:

"15 When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' 'Yes, Lord,' he said, 'you know that I love you.' Jesus said, 'Feed my lambs.'

16 Again Jesus said, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He answered, 'Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.' Jesus said, 'Take care of my sheep.'

17 The third time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' He said, 'Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.' Jesus said, 'Feed my sheep.'"

What were the 3 responses that Jesus had to Peter's answers? In which direction does God point Peter? Backward or forward?

DISCUSSION (CONT.)

What do the references of “Feeding lambs and taking care of sheep” mean for Peter’s story? Just like Jesus restored Peter back to his earthly position, do you feel like there is something God has laid on your heart to do in the past that He still wants you to do in the future? If so, explain.

Pastor Zach says on Day 33: “The freedom that God gives you is not only freedom from sin, but freedom to a life of purpose.” #FORGIVINGCHALLENGE “Walking without Jesus leads to a lack of direction, confusion, purposelessness, and unfulfilled lives. Walking with Jesus leads to meaning, purpose, joy, and fulfillment.” Agree or disagree?

FORGIVING CHALLENGE

CLOSING THOUGHT + PRAYER

Close your eyes and listen to these words by Pastor Timothy Keller, “Jesus’ salvation is not only like receiving a pardon and release from death row and prison. Then we’d be free, but on our own, left to make our own way in the world, thrown back on our efforts if we’re to make anything of ourselves. But in the Gospel, we discover that Jesus has taken us off death row and then has hung around our neck the Congressional Medal of Honor. We are received and welcomed as heroes as if we had accomplished extraordinary deeds.”

Read Psalm 139:13-16 out loud together as a group:

Spend time praying that each person in the group would truly experience God’s love for them. Then, ask the Holy Spirit to reveal a new direction for every person in the group as they faithfully follow Jesus.

INTRODUCTION

Ice breaker: We are taking the final step towards freedom today. Would you describe yourself as a starter, a maintainer, or a finisher? Why?

Take some time to discuss the previous week's readings and challenges. Be honest about whether you did all, some, or none of the challenges. Challenges are not homework; they are opportunities. Completing them is not mandatory, but optional. You can still attend small group even if you didn't do any, but we challenge you to be honest about how you are doing with the challenges.

DISCUSSION

- ➔ Celebrate a "win" that you had in Forgiving Challenge over the past week.
- ➔ Share a struggle.
- ➔ What did God reveal to you during the readings and/or Challenges this past week?

WATCH FORGIVING CHALLENGE SMALL GROUP VIDEO WEEK 6 - SANCTIFICATION

The definition of sanctification is the process of being freed from sin. Why is sanctification such a vulnerable, and seemingly, dangerous final step in our journey to become free?

Pastor Zach said that truly experiencing freedom doesn't happen until you step into and live out the life that God invites you into. Agree or disagree? #FORGIVINGCHALLENGE

Read Acts 2:14-41 the sermon that Peter delivered. 52 days earlier, Peter couldn't pledge allegiance and say the name "Jesus" in front of one servant girl. Now he is publicly preaching to thousands. How do you think Peter changed so quickly?

Pastor Zach said that often times God will use the sins of our past that were meant to destroy us to actually then bring freedom to others. How did God do this with Peter? Are there any parts of Peter's earthly story that stick out to you after the charcoal fire conversation in Chapter 89?

Peter's earthly story ends being crucified upside-down on a cross because he was faithful to Jesus. Do you see this as a bad ending to his story or the ending in which Peter actually always wanted? How will you remember Peter?

DISCUSSION (CONT.)

On Day 39 of Forgiving Challenge Pastor Zach writes: “The only way we know about the blunders of Peter is because Peter told others about them. What kind of man would let the world see his foolishness? What kind of man would so freely talk about his big blunders? Only the “Big Boulder”. Only someone who has become completely and totally content with the freedom that comes through Jesus Christ. Only someone who has turned away from his wicked ways and is walking with Jesus.

1 Can you be any freer than this?

Peter told these stories of him at his worst so you could see the best in Jesus.” Agree or disagree with Zach’s conclusion to Peter’s story.

1 Is there a way in which God can use the sins of your past to help bring freedom to others? Explain.

Just as scars leave marks, so too, can we leave a mark with our lives.

1 What mark do you want to leave in the world, and why?

Read Revelation 12:11 They triumphed over him [Satan] by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony. We will defeat the enemy when we tell our stories of how God has forgiven and freed us through the blood that Jesus shed.

1 Now that you have been freed through the forgiveness of Jesus, does this change how you forgive others?
